

ICAS – Membership without audit from outside EEA/EU

In the absence of any previous agreement or reciprocal membership applicants would be required to complete the full ICAS graduate training route with relevant examinations and experience requirements determined on a case by case basis.